

CHEC Awards 2010 Scholarships

Ashley Burrus, daughter of Renee and Darren Burrus of Buxton, was awarded a four-year partial scholarship from Cape Hatteras Electric Cooperative. She will be attending East Carolina University. Ashley's extracurricular activities included participation in the Student Government Association and Future Business Leaders of America. She was the 2009-2010 Homecoming Queen.

Will Evans, son of Bill and Candy Evans of Buxton, will be attending North Carolina State University where he has been accepted into the School of Engineering and will pursue a degree in electrical engineering. Will was awarded a four-year partial academic scholarship by CHEC. Will's accomplishments during his high school years include being a member of the National Honor Society; treasurer for the Technology Student Association; junior marshal in 2008-2009; Most Valuable Player/varsity basketball his junior year; medal in Sports & Entertainment Marketing/DECA; and All Conference in varsity basketball and team captain his senior year.

Danielle Gartelman has been awarded a two-year partial CHEC academic scholarship to attend Pitt Community College in Greenville to study business or accounting. Danielle was named to the AB Honor Roll during her junior and senior years.

Lynzie Renteria, daughter of Gina and step father Ronnie Williams of Frisco, was awarded a two-year partial CHEC academic scholarship and plans to attend Cape Fear Community College in Wilmington. Lynzie will work towards an associate's degree in general education in her goal to become a physical therapist. Lynzie's achievements in secondary school include varsity basketball, varsity cheerleading; the academic excellence award for biology her sophomore year and the Cross Country Athlete of the Year award her junior year.